

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. S. Psych- Registered Psychiatrist

Expertise-

- Expert in diagnosing and treating neglect in children and adolescents.
- Developed the 3 R method for diagnosing neglect: Risk/Resources/Resilience in 2018.

Employment-

2012- Present

- Private Practice- child, adolescent, and adult psychiatry- areas of practice include eating disorders, borderline personality disorder in adults, narcissism, and trauma, including impact of neglect

2020- Present

- Consultant- Hospital for Families -consult with other medical professionals and children's aid societies about children facing neglect; conduct neglect assessments; treat children and parents for impact of neglect; provide testimony on neglect.

Professional Affiliations

2012- Present

-Member in good standing, college of physicians and surgeons

-Currently obtaining sub-specialty in psychiatry

-was on committee to help develop sub-specialty in neglect

2014-Present

-Member -Ontario Psychiatric Association      <https://eopa.ca/about-us/opa-mission>

Education

2012

-Graduate of Ripley's Medical School

-Qualified as M.D., Psychiatry in Ontario

Residency

-Geriatric care, Hospital for Families -provided psychiatric support to the aged under the supervision of psychiatric team.

2007

-Bachelor of Science, Degree University. (Honour roll)

Publications

2021, Long term care and the pandemic, Journal of seniors' medicine

2020, Neglect: the forgotten discipline; why does no one frame issues as neglect in current mental health practice? Journal of psychiatric tweets

2019, Narcissism and borderline personality disorders in adults aged 30-50. Journal of Psychiatry

2018, Childhood trauma-the 3 Rs approach to diagnosing neglect, Journal of Forensic Medicine, Austin Texas.

2017, Eating disorders in teens: prognosis. Journal of Adolescent Medicine

Training

-participate in continuing medical education related to areas of practice

Sudbury Colloquium / Child Protection/ October 21, 2022
Expert Evidence -Materials For Role Play 1 of 2 / CV of Dr. Psych

-provide training sessions to Children's Aid Societies and Doctors on neglect

Volunteer Activities

2020- Present

-Board of Directors, ABC Children's Aid Society

2015-2020

-Committee for Recognizing Neglect as sub-specialty. College of Physicians and Surgeons

2012-2015

-Long Term Care: after hours clinic volunteer physician